“Best Little Pork House in Alabama”™
FULLMOONBBQ.COM
Since 1956
Full Moon Bar-B-Que has a long, delicious history of great Southern-style Que made in the time-honored, traditional way with quality meats cooked low and slow over a hickory wood-fired pit and spiced with a mouthwatering, award-winning bar-b-que sauce.

The Mahaff brothers, David and Joe, bought the original restaurant, which opened in 1956, and they have since grown the business while continuing a family-owned tradition that caters to folks who know great Que from the rest.

The wood smoke from every Full Moon restaurant’s fire pit shows the Birmingham-born brothers’ commitment to top-notch bar-b-que.

We start from scratch at Full Moon – from the famous Full Moon chow-chow to the baked fresh each day Half Moon cookies. And it’s all served with a smile and a healthy helping of true Southern hospitality.

Full Moon’s vinaigrette salad and the Half Moon cookies are among the “100 Dishes to Eat Alabama Before You Die,” and Full Moon regularly enjoys accolades from magazines like Southern Living, Bon Appetit and Bonny.

Full Moon is the “Best Little Pork House in Alabama.”
