"Best Little Pork House!"

Full Moon Bar-B-Que has a long, delicious history of great Southern-style 'que made in the time-honored, traditional way; with quality meats cooked low and slow over a hickory wood-fired pit and spiced with a mouthwatering, award-winning bar-b-que sauce.

The Maluff brothers, David and Joe, bought the original restaurant, which opened in 1986, and they have since grown the business while continuing a family-owned tradition that caters to folks who know great 'que from the rest.

The wood smoke from every Full Moon restaurant's fire pit shows the Birmingham-born brothers' commitment to top-notch bar-b-que! At Full Moon, we start from scratch! From the famous Full Moon chow-chow to the baked-fresh-daily Half Moon cookies. And it's all served with a smile and a healthy helping of true Southern hospitality!

Full Moon's vinaigrette slaw and Half Moon cookies are among the "100 Dishes to Eat Before You Die," and Full Moon regularly enjoys accolades from magazines like Southern Living, Bon Appetit, and Ebony.
